

Supervision with Dr. Summer Allen, LPC S: Frequently Asked Questions

What is Dr. Allen's theoretical orientation?

Dr. Allen uses a variety of theories in her clinical practice. She does not adhere to one theoretical orientation as she believes well-trained clinicians should be able to use various applied theories in order to remain client-centered.

Does Dr. Allen supervise LPC Associates who own and operate a private practice?

Dr. Allen will accept LPC Associates who wish to own and operate a private practice. Per board rules, Dr. Allen must use her own discretion when approving site and the approval of a LPC Associate owning and operating a private practice is no different. These approvals are determined on a case-by-case basis. This should be discussed in more detail with Dr. Allen during the supervision interview (YES! LPC Associates SHOULD be interviewing various LPC Supervisors before making a decision!).

All LPC Associates who solely own and operate a private practice as their site will be required to attend an additional supervision session each month. This supervision session is dedicated to private practice ownership and management.

What other types of sites will Dr. Allen approve for Associates she supervises?

Dr. Allen is willing to consider a variety of sites for LPC Associates. However, at this time, Dr. Allen is not accepting LPC Associates earning hours in a school setting as she does not have experience in a school setting in any capacity.

Does Dr. Allen offer in-person or tele supervision?

Dr. Allen offers both tele supervision and in-person supervision.

How much does Dr. Allen charge for supervision?

Individual Supervision Sessions (up to 2 supervisees): $75.00/session

Group Supervision Sessions (3 or more supervisees): $60.00/session

Does Dr. Allen provide client referrals or office space?

Dr. Allen employs LPC Associates in her practice and as employees these individuals receive referrals and office space. However, for LPC Associates not employed by Dr. Allen, office space and referrals are not provided. Dr. Allen can discuss office use options for LPC Associates in the supervision interview.

Has Dr. Allen ever had a licensing board complaint or violation?

No.